- ii) Official organised parties proceeding to assist in natural calamities, e. g. Fires, Earthquakes, Floods, etc.
- iii) Lieutenant Governor.
- iv) Ministers of the Popular Government and the Speaker.
- v) Members of Legislative Assembly while proceeding to attend the Assembly Session.
- vi) Judicial Commissioner.
- vii) Chief Secretary.
- viii) Station Commander of Armed Forces.
- ix) Naval Officer-in-Charge, Goa.
- x) Transport of mails.
- xi) Airline Vehicle proceeding to or from Dabolim Airfield.
- xii) Transporting of Armed Forces/Police personnel proceeding on special tasks of an extremely urgent nature only certified as such personally by the S. S. P., Station Commander or Naval Officer-in-Charge, Goa. If in an emergency said requisition cannot be produced, a confirmation within 24 hours of the authorities will have to be sent failing which priority will not be allowed in future.

(Note: The Priority is for the individuals mentioned above themselves and not for their vehicles if they are travelling without them).

2. Civilian personnel belonging to various Government Departments proceeding on special tasks of an extremely urgent nature shall between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. obtain prior sanction from the Office of the Captain of Ports at Panjim. Between the hours of 7 p. m. and 7 a. m. priority may be obtained at the ferry points for very urgent works only but in such cases the Heads of Departments shall within 24 hours certify that due to very urgent work priority was utilised. In public interest, the Heads of Departments are requested to use extreme discretion when desiring «Priorities».

3. This supersedes all the previous orders issued on this subject.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

R. K. Gupta, Deputy Secretary, Industries and Labour Department.
